DAVE COUSINS Two Weeks Last Summer

Leader/founder of the STRAWBS, Dave Cousins may be the most talented Dylan-influenced songwriter to come out of England. His work fairly resounds of both rebellion and antiquity, as though he were writing protest songs of the 18th or 19th centuries. Haunting melodies abound, carried by his raspy and sincere voice. TWO WEEKS LAST SUMMER' was recorded in 1972 and has not been previously available on CD

Two Weeks Last Summer - October To May - Blue Angel - That's The Way It Ends (including The World) - The Actor - When You Were A Child - Ways And Means - We'll Meet Again Sometime - Going Home

DAVE LAMBERT Work In Progress

WORK IN PROGRESS' is a summary of Dave's career - new songs, live recordings, and rare studio sessions. The album includes two previously unreleased tracks from FIRE, one of the most collectable bands from the 1960s. There is a rare studio remix from KING EARL BOOGIE BAND, and an alternate take from his 1970s solo album featuring John Entwistle. Unreleased live recordings are from Strawbs' Chiswick House concert, and there are three new and previously unreleased songs

The Man I Saw Last Night (DL, 2003) - Starlight (single, King Earl, 1972) - The Winter And The Summer (Chiswick, 1998) - Live To Love (Fire, 1970) - The Visit (DL, 2003) - Remember Me Always (alternate mix, Framed, 1978) - Framed (Chiswick, 1998) - Back There Again (Fire, 1970) - Shadowland (DL, 2003) - Live Inside Your Hell Tonight (Baroque & Roll, 2001) - Bover Blues (Chiswick, 1998)

STRAWBS Blue Angel

The appearance of this disc is miracle in itself. Two distinct lineups of the band appear on the various tracks; the late 1990's edition and a re-created 70's lineup with Dave Lambert and Rod Coombes playing together for the first time in over 25 years! The songs include re-records of some key tracks as well as new material. "Blue Angel" appears for the first time with a full on studio of Strawbs. "Lay Down" includes a guest appearance by Mary Hopkin and Maddy Prior reprises her appearance on "The King".

Blue Angel (Cousins) (I) Divided - (II) Half Worlds Apart - (III) At Rest - Oh So Sleepy (Cousins) - Further Down The Road (Cousins) - There Will Come The Day (Cousins/Airey) - Strange Day Over The Hill (Cousins) - Cry No More (Cousins/Willoughby) - The Plain (Cousins) - Do You Remember (Cousins/Willoughby) - Rhythm Of The Night (Cousins) - Morning Glory (Cousins) - Sealed With A Traitor's Kiss(Cousins) - Lay Down (Cousins) - Bonus Track: The King (Cousins)

STRAWBS Deja Fou

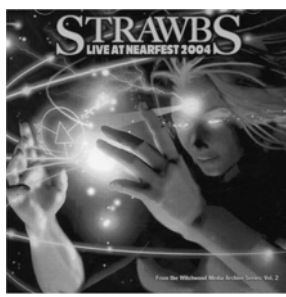

Deja Fou is the first set of completely new songs on a Strawbs album for over twenty years. Also, the first time they have played together since 'Hero & Heroine' and 'Ghosts' which both sold hundreds of thousands of copies worldwide. This is a welcome return to the mood, power and scope of those legendary recordings with a refreshingly new twist.

Riviera del Fiori (Cousins/Lambert) - Under A Cloudless Sky (Cousins) - Face Down In The Well (Cousins) - On A Night Like This (Cousins) - If (Cousins) - Cold Steel (Lambert) - Sunday Morning (Cousins/Lambert) - This Barren Land (Cousins/Lambert) - When The Lights Came On (Lambert) - Russian Front (Cousins/Cronk/Hawken/Lambert) - Here Today, Gone Tomorrow (Cousins) - NRG (Cousins)
